

Vassar's victorious debating team which defeated a team of men from Lafayette College. Left to right, Miss Marion Cahill, New York city; Miss Clara Cheney, Fort Edward, N. Y.; Miss C. Williams, Douglaston, L. I.; Miss Margaret Bliss, New Haven, Conn. Photo Wide World.

Devereaux Milburn, veteran captain of America's polo team, sails for the international cup matches. Picture taken aboard the Olympic last week just before she left for England.

Copyright, Kadel & Herbert.

President Harding gives the Washington boys $50 to help build a swimming pool. John Wackeman, 11 years old (in Eton collar and with the $50 tightly clutched), is the boy who wrote a persuasive letter to the President about the project.

Underwood & Underwood.

Above — Favorite portrait of Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, noted society beauty, who has entered the movies, playing with Norma Talmadge in "The Wonderful Thing."

Underwood & Underwood.

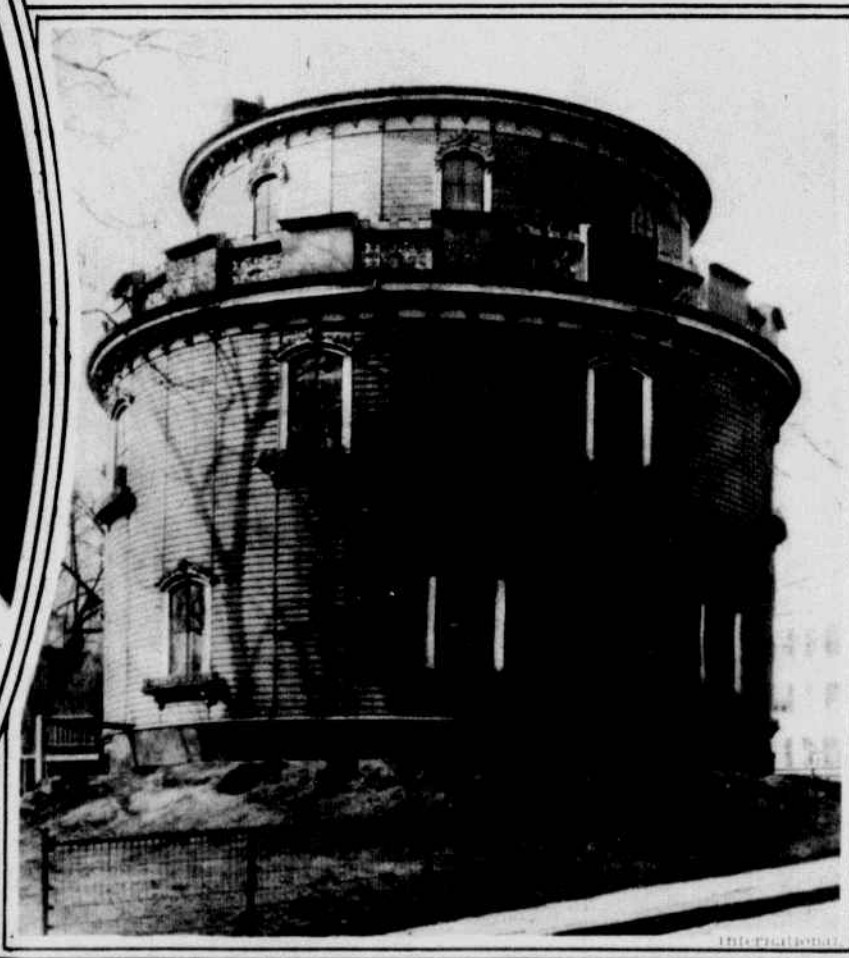

At right—Here's the largest searchlight in the world, 10 feet high, with 60 inch lens and weighing three tons. It will be set up on Mount Tamalpais and will illuminate the Golden Gate of San Francisco.

Underwood & Underwood.

New photograph of Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, formerly Miss Alice Roosevelt and sister of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

A

Unique circular dwelling at Somerville, Mass., that has just passed from the Enoch Robinson family after more than sixty years. A spiral stairway in the centre gives access to five pie-shaped bedrooms on the second floor, and there is not a square room in the whole house.

